Purple Joins Pink To Slam Dunk Breast Cancer

Bismarck, N.D. (Oct. 4, 2011) – The Dakota Wizards along with Hardees will join forces with Women's Way in the fight to slam dunk Breast Cancer by holding a social on Saturday, October 22nd at Peacock Alley, 422 E. Main St., from 2-4:30 p.m.

Tickets for the social will be limited and they are available for $20 at Peacock Alley and the Dakota Wizards office located in the Bismarck Civic Center. This ticket is also good for the Nov. 26th game against the Los Angeles D-Fenders which will feature the Dakota Wizards wearing pink uniforms which will be raffled off at the conclusion of the game. There will also be a special recognition for Breast Cancer survivors at halftime.

“Last year we were able to raise over $2,000 for Women's Way and what a better way for the Dakota Wizards to give back to the community and the fight against Breast Cancer,” said Wizards Vice President of Sales and Marketing Terri Benson.

The social will also feature guest speakers, hors d'oeuvres, cash bar and a silent auction with a portion of the proceeds from the event going to Women's Way. Those attending will be able to register for a roundtrip airline voucher from Allegiant Air and by wearing Pink to the social you will receive a special door prize.

Season tickets and 5-ticket flex packs for the 2011-12 season are on sale. Single game tickets will go on sale in early November. The home opener is set for Friday, Nov. 25 against the Los Angeles D-Fenders. For more information contact the Dakota Wizards at (701) 258-2255 or visit dakotawizards.com
